Dear Colleagues,

Kolhapur Obstetric and Gynaecological Society is organising the 17th Annual Conference of the Indian Society of Colposcopy and Cervical Pathology (ISCCP) from 18th to 20th April 2025 in Kolhapur, Maharashtra, under the auspices of AMOGS and D. Y. Patil Medical College, Kolhapur

The theme of the conference is

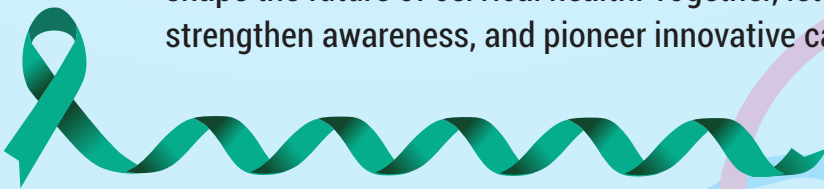

"EVaST" Educate, Vaccinate, Screen & Treat.

The conference aims to advance cervical health by addressing key challenges in the management and follow-up of screen positive cases, aligning with the WHO Goal of 90-70-90 to eliminate cervical cancer as a public health problem.

Kolhapur, a well-connected city known for its cultural heritage, offers attendees a rich experience with its historic charm, flavourful non-vegetarian cuisine and exquisite gold & silver jewellery.

The conference will feature expert-led sessions, practical solutions to clinical challenges and opportunities for collaboration with leaders in the field. Attendees can look forward to an academic and gastronomic feast, blending learning with cultural exploration.

Mark your calendars for 18th to 20th April 2025 and join us in Kolhapur to shape the future of cervical health. Together, let's empower vision, strengthen awareness, and pioneer innovative care!
